Los Angeles, California 90012

At its meeting held May 27, 2008, the Board took the following action:

18

Supervisor Burke made the following statement:

“On Friday, February 8, 2008 at approximately 11:20 p.m., Antwan Emil Cole was shot multiple times while waiting near a bus stop in the Athens area of Los Angeles at the corner of 135th and Main Streets. He was transported to a local hospital, but was pronounced dead a short time later. Antwan had just gotten off work where he was a security guard for an oil refinery across the street from the bus stop.

“Antwan lived with his grandmother, Evelean Cole, and attended Los Angeles Trade Tech College. He is survived by his father, Andre Cole, his mother, Anona Stuart and five brothers and three sisters.

“There are no leads or suspects at this time”.

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Burke, seconded by Supervisor Knabe, unanimously carried, the Board established a $10,000 reward for any information leading to the arrest and/or conviction of the person or persons responsible for the murder of Antwan Emil Cole, who was shot multiple times while waiting near a bus stop located at the corner of 135th and Main Street in the Athens area of Los Angeles, on Friday, February 8, 2008 at approximately 11:20 p.m.
